THE GRISSOM COAT OF ARMS HEREBY ILLUSTRATED IS OFFICIALLY DOCUMENTED IN RIETSTAP ARMORIAL GENERAL. THE ORIGINAL DESCRIPTION OF THE ARMS (SHIELD) IS AS FOLLOWS:

"D'ARG. AU SAUT. DE GU., CANT DE QUATRE PENSEES AU NAT."

WHEN TRANSLATED THE BLAZON ALSO DESCRIBES THE ORIGINAL COLORS OF THE GRISSOM ARMS AS:

"SILVER; EMBLAZONED WITH A RED CROSS OF SAINT ANDREW, THE ARMS OF WHICH ARE BETWEEN A TOTAL OF FOUR NATURALLY COLORED PANSIES."

The years passed so swiftly, it seems only yesterday that we put together the "Grissom" book.

Reunion time slips up on us, but we never lose our enthusiasm for it. The coming together as a family has drawn us closer as we share happy moments as well as sad ones.

Its gratifying to see the interest that the young people have shown in the reunions, and interesting to see the little ones making new friends and discovering anew the fun of being in the park.

Each year, there are loved ones that are missed but we have special memories that make them always a part of us.

Our lovely Aunt Nancy will be missed this year. She died on December 3, 1984 at the age of 97.

We cannot grieve for her but only remember the beautiful life that she lived.

Even in her final years she never lost her love for the reunion. Because of her we will make this reunion the best ever.

CHRISTINE G. BROWN

-1984/85

"THESE ARE OUR BEGINNINGS"

A man named Grissom came from Ireland in late 1700 and settled in South Carolina. He married there and had eight sons. One son left and settled in Georgia. There he married and to him was born sons and daughters. One son, born December 7, 1819, was named William Grissom. He left Georgia and in Alabama he met and married a girl named Nancy E. Tubbs. They left Alabama and homesteaded a farm in Mississippi at a small place called Summerland. There they stayed the rest of their lives. He died in 1886. She died in 1900. They were buried in old Clear Creek Cemetery.

Joseph Crayton was born October 29, 1864, and was the third son of Nancy and William Grissom. He married Melinda Jefcoats who was born March 4, 1865. To them were born twelve children. Eleven children lived to adulthood, married and had children.

The family lived near the small community of Summerland. Grandpa provided for his growing family by farming the land. There were six sons and five daughters to help with the farm chores. These were busy years filled with the experiences of a growing family. Uncle John, Aunt Nancy and Aunt Nora married and remained in the same area.

About this time the farmers were experiencing some difficult years. Some families had left this area and moved to the delta country of Louisiana. There were glowing reports of the farming success in the rich delta land.

In 1915, Grandpa made the decision to move his family to Louisiana near the small town of Clayton. His married children and their families made this move also. Uncle Ben was the only member of the family that didn't move to Louisiana. He had already left home to start his teaching career.

There were many discomforts in this new land; the mosquito caused outbreaks of malaria; and there was always the threat of floods. World War I was declared and Uncle Ocia went overseas. My Daddy, Sylvester, enlisted and was scheduled for overseas duty when the war ended in 1918.

Aunt Nancy and Aunt Nora's family moved back to Mississippi after only a few years in the Delta country.

The younger members of the family were growing into adults. One by one they married and made homes for themselves. In a few years Aunt Bea was the only one left at home. Uncle Ben had moved to East Texas; Uncle Ocia and my daddy married sisters and shortly after this, Ocia moved to Texas. It was after the disastrous flood of 1922 that my daddy moved his family to Baton Rouge. Denson was moving about and settled in Texas. Uncle Clifton established his home in Lake Charles. Aunt Florence and her husband Hiram settled in northern Mississippi. Aunt Myrtis and her family stayed in the Delta country longer than any other of the sisters before moving back to Mississippi. Uncle John was the only member of the family that stayed his lifetime in the Louisiana Delta. His son Wallace and daughter Linnie Parker still live in this area.

Grandma Grissom was a strong-willed person who guided her large family with firmness and love. Her home was always open to visitors especially to the country preacher, who spent the week-ends with the church members. She lived a full life in this Delta Country but she never loved it like she did the rolling hills of Mississippi that she called home.

Grandma died in 1931 after a long illness. She was buried in Natchez Cemetery. Aunt Bea, the "baby" of the family left her teaching position to stay with Grandma during her illness. She stayed at home with Grandpa for a short while but left to attend college in Cleveland, Mississippi. She married and made her home there.

Grandpa Joe remained on the farm for two or more years and then he decided to leave the farm. He made his home with Aunt Nora. However, he visited among all his children. He was always a welcome part of the family. He had time to love us and recall family happenings in his slow drawling voice. I'm sure there's not one of you that will forget his "blessing" before every meal.

In February 1941, while traveling to Mississippi after a visit with my family, he lost his life in a tragic automobile accident that also claimed the lives of my parents and twin sisters. He was buried in Natchez beside his wife.

Only two of the eleven brothers and sisters remain with us.

Uncle Ocia is still young at heart. How we delight is talking with him. After years of farming in Texas and Mississippi he retired and moved to California to be near his children. He remains active in his church, and is always ready to lend a helping hand where it is needed.

The youngest, Aunt Bea, lives a useful busy life. She is active in her church and teaches an Adult Bible Class. She spends time traveling and she always keeps in touch with all the family.

From Grandpa's 11 children, we now number grandchildren, great grandchildren and many great, great grandchildren. They live in many different states from Connecticut to California. We are a honorable hard working group with strong Christian convictions. We claim ministers, businessmen, and many other professional people among our numbers. We can be proud of our Grissom heritage.
